

LORDS AMENDMENTS
TO THE POOR RELIEF (IRELAND) BILL.

Note.—The words in red ink are proposed to be inserted by the Commons as Amendments to the Lords' Amendments.

The page and line refer to Bill (86.) as first printed by the Lords.

Clause 2, page 1, line 7, leave out ("at the passing of this Act") and insert ("fifteenth day of April 1886")

At the end of clause 3, page 2, line 18, add, as a new subsection,—

"(d.) In any island forming part of any of the unions named in the schedule to this Act, the Lord Lieutenant may from time to time make provision for securing the proper administration of so much of any grant made to that union under this section as he thinks necessary to set apart, by prescribing rules in relation thereto; and for the employment of special agents to aid in the administration of the sum set apart, and otherwise as he thinks expedient. And the sum set apart shall be applied in carrying out the purposes of the Acts for the relief of the poor in that island, in such manner as the Lord Lieutenant from time to time may direct."

Leave out lines 31 to 34, both inclusive.

Clause 6, page 3, line 3, leave out ("fresh") and insert ("such")

At end of clause 7, add—

"The powers conferred upon the Commissioners of Public Works by the seventh section of that Act may be exercised by them notwithstanding that the pier or other work is not vested in them.

"The provisions of the Act of the Session of the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter three, and of any Act amending it, relative to ~~maintenance and repair~~, and as to ~~tolls and rates~~, and as to ~~byelaws, rates, orders, and regulations~~, and otherwise, shall apply to such pier or work as if it had been constructed or done under those Acts."

[Bill 192.]

high water

No work shall be commenced or constructed by the Commission below the line of high water of ordinary spring tides without the previous consent of the Board of Trade, to be signified in writing under the hand of one of their secretaries or assistant secretaries.

Saving rights of the Crown in the facesheet.

Nothing contained in this Act shall authorise the Commission to take, use, or in any manner interfere with any portion of the shore or bed of the sea, or of any river, channel, creek, bay, or estuary, or any right in respect thereof, belonging to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, in right of Her Crown, and under the management of the Board of Trade, without the previous consent in writing of the Board of Trade on behalf of Her Majesty (which consent the Board of Trade may give); neither shall anything in this Act contained extend to take away, prejudice, diminish, or alter any of the estates, rights, privileges, powers, or authorities vested in, or enjoyed, or exercisable by the Queen's Majesty, Her heirs or successors.
